

Moses Sends Spies Into the Promised Land

Lesson 8

Standing up for God means following him no matter what.

“Therefore, my dear brothers, stand firm. Let nothing move you. Always give yourself fully to the work of the Lord, because you know that your labor in the Lord is not in vain” (1 Corinthians 15:58).

We learned this week that we need to stand up for God no matter what (Numbers 13:1–14:23). Strengthen your family’s faith learning and growth at home with this easy idea:

Parents: Spend time with your kids looking through the Bible for someone who was a hero and stood up for God. What qualities did that hero live out that you’d like to adopt in your life? Maybe that person stood up for God through his or her actions despite life-threatening consequences, or perhaps that person listened to the Holy Spirit instead of saying the wrong thing at the wrong time. Then, talk with your kids about areas where each of you need to make more of an effort to stand up for God.

Lord, we want to follow and serve you no matter what. Please give us the courage to stand up for you in every situation. In Jesus’ name, amen.
